

Sweet T Original

A couple weeks ago, I got an e-mail from Tanja, the creator of Sweet T Original, asking if I would review her make-up bags! But, of course! After surfing her site, how could I not want to get my hands on one of those darling bags??? The above, the Mon Cheri III, is what Tanja sent me to review. Can I say that it is the cutest make-up bag I have ever owned? Pulling it out of my purse makes me feel like such a girly-girl and what can be better than that? It's roomy and well made and just downright perfect. And the make-up bags come in such wonderful prints that I just have to have more than one. BTW - Did I tell you she makes purses, too? And wristlets??? Oh my God, girl, why are you still reading this review??? Go order yourself one (or more, who's counting?)!!!!
