

Tribal Makeup Bag

📅 November 27th, 2006

The Perfect Gift For: Your Favorite Makeup Artist.

Like so many New Yorkers, Tanja of Sweet T Original prefers dressing in monochromatic black. But when she designs her bags, she sheds her basic black in favor of bright colors, bold prints, and combinations of contrasting fabrics.

Tribal tattoos came to mind when Tanja saw this particular Marimekko print. And because Tanja promised her mother that she wouldn't get any more tattoos, she decided to make herself a bag that reminded her of them.

Did you know? Tanja has "New York" tattooed on her left shoulder. At least, she hopes that's what it says, since she can't read Chinese!
